NORRIS REPORT ON MUSCLE SHOALS BIDS RESOLVES ITSELF INTO A BITTER ATTACK ON HENRY FORD AS HEAD OF "PIRATE" CO.

Charge Attempt of "Soulless" Corporation To Obtain "Greatest Gift Ever Bestowed Upon Mortal Man"

EDITORIAL.

The Daily publishes the following news story from Washington covering the report of Senator Norris and his fellow opponents of the Ford offer for Muscle Shoals because The Daily believes it is a matter of news its readers are entitled to.

However, The Daily takes this opportunity to declare that the report of the senatorial committee has failed absolutely to shake this newspaper's faith in Mr. Ford and his plans for Muscle Shoals. The Daily stands as it has always stood, believing that the Ford offer is the logical one for Muscle Shoals.

By Warren W. Wheaton, International News Service Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Instead of being the philanthropist and magical benefactor of millions of people, as his admirers have pictured him, Henry Ford was characterized today as the head of a "piratical" corporation, seeking through his bid for Muscle Shoals a virtual donation of $14-100,000,000 from the taxpayers of the country.

These charges against Ford and his effort to get control of Muscle Shoals were made today by a majority report of the Senate agriculture committee, which voted 9 to 7 against accepting his offer. The report was presented to the Senate by Senator George W. Norris, Republican, of Nebraska, who led the fight against Ford in committee.

The enormity of the "gift" Ford asks is virtually beyond human conception, the report declared. It was added that acceptance of the Ford offer would have merited everlasting condemnation of Congress.

The report ripped the Ford bid to pieces in one of the most scathing critical documents ever emanating from the nation's capitol. It charged an attempt of a "soulless" corporation to obtain the "greatest gift ever bestowed upon mortal man" and asserted without mincing words that the public has been victimized by propagandists into believing the Ford proposal a just and fair one.

Ford, the report asserted, not only wanted the property with its water power potentialities greater than any project in the world, "at 'unreasonable terms,' but in addition demanded that the government furnish all the money for its development and the taxpayers of the country assume all the risk involved.

The Senate committee report warned:

"The acceptance of Mr. Ford's offer turns back the clock of progress and opens the door wide for the use of natural resources by corporations and monopolies without restriction, without regulation and without restraint.
If this proposition is accepted, the fight for the preservation of the natural resources of the country is lost, the special interests and monopolies is absolute and a precedent is established that will take the control from the people of the greatest resources that have ever been given to man by an all-wise Creator.

"There is no man so good, no corporation so beneficent as should induce a patriotic legislator to thus surrender to unequaled monopoly the rights and privileges that belong to all the people and which ought to be kept and preserved for our descendants."

Ford adherents were severely attacked by the report as constantly throwing up barriers to any proposal, governmental or otherwise, for development of Muscle Shoals other than the Ford bid.

Little merit is seen in any phase of the Ford offer by the majority of the committee. This is particularly true of the 100-year lease term designed by the Michigan man, which the report contends means simply the turning over of the property to a "soulless corporation" as "unrestrained, unlimited and as unregulated as any pirate that ever sailed the seas."

The Senators signing the report agreed that the Alabama Power Company, which developed a part of the Muscle Shoals property before the government took over the plant under wartime emergencies, is entitled to the Gorgas plant, which it owned and aided in developing for government use. They want the project owned and controlled by the government for war and peace time work.

The report in this connection, recommends:

Completion of Wilson Dam No. 2.
Utilization of nitrate plant No. 1 for production of explosive ingredients, "the most important consideration of Muscle Shoals."

Maintenance of nitrate plant No. 2 in a standby condition ready for any emergency.

In developing the property, the making of cheap fertilizers must always be kept in mind, the report states, although it points out that the immense cost of putting the big plant in operation would not justify the government in considering fertilizers alone.

But, it adds:

"Certainly no taxpayer in the country would criticize the expenditure of any amount of money in an endeavor to give to agriculture a cheap fertilizer."

Real estate speculators who have flooded the country with offers for sale of property adjacent to the Muscle Shoals project are freely criticised.

"These real estate speculators," says the report, "are organizing wonderful propaganda in favor of the acceptance of the Ford offer. They have flooded the country with letters and circulars, particularly among the farmers, in which they falsely represent that Ford has agreed to make fertilizer at 'one-half its present cost.'"

Thousands of farmers have been hoodwinked, it is charged. The report states that if Ford gets the property and their promises are kept "a city will spring up which will make New York look like a country village." It looks, it says, like the most wonderful real estate speculation "since Adam and Eve lost title to the Garden of Eden." Wonder is expressed why the capitol at Washington was not thrown in.

Most of the document is devoted to the Ford bid, the only one really given consideration out of the number made the government.

The Ford bid, the report says, 'did not agree to sell fertilizer at a fixed or at a reduced price; did not agree to turn the property back to the government in the event of war; and sought governmental financial aid in developing practically the entire plant. The 100-year lease term is in itself, 'sufficient reason for the unqualified rejection' of the offer, the report asserts.

"Congress owes something to the generations that shall follow," it adds. "It has no moral right to provide by law for the giving away of rights and privileges that belong to future generations. We have no right to mortgage unborn generations by giving special rights and privileges to corporations to make millions of

Ford Has No Answer to Make to Solon's Charge

(By International News Service.)

DETROIT, July 20.—Henry Ford has no answer to make to the scathing charges contained in the senate committee's report on his offer to buy Muscle Shoals. From sources close to Ford it was stated Ford considers the charges "old stuff" and intends to "stand pat" on his original offer to take over the gigantic project.

Ford's position today was declared to be substantially the same as that expressed in a letter to Julius Kahn, chairman of the house military affairs committee on May 31. In his letter Ford declared that only congress had the power to accept or reject the proposition and warned that rejection would mean only the beginning of a more determined fight on his part "to save Muscle Shoals for the public."

CONFERENCE MEETS HERE IN OCTOBER; PLANS FORMULATED

The annual session of the North Alabama Methodist Conference will be held with the First Methodist Church of Decatur this fall, according to a decision reached by the commission, appointed to select a meeting place, and made public here through Rev. W. P. McGlavin, presiding elder for the Decatur district.

The commission met yesterday in Birmingham and Rev. W. P. Mc-Glavin was advised late yesterday afternoon that decision had been reached to come here.

The conference will be attended by approximately 400 delegates, lay and ministerial, and is expected to convene on Oct. 5. However, that date is subject to change, Rev. McGlavin stated. The sessions will continue probably six days.

Plans for entertainment of the big Methodist meeting are being formulated today and committees likely will be appointed to handle the details.

Cline Presides At Tabernacle Meeting

According to E. G. Cherry, chairman of the federated shop crafts, previously announced meeting for tonight at 7 o'clock, at the Bob Jones Tabernacle, will be presided over by H. O. Cline, who will introduce the speakers. Mr. Cherry stated that in addition to the address by Dr. Wilks, S. E. Roper, chairman of the crafts of the L. & N. System, and W. H.
Wilson, general chairman of the boilermakers, will also make addresses. The music is to be furnished by the Hartung orchestra and by the Laxon Quartette.

Enthusiasm At Shopmen's Meet When Many Speakers Are Heard

The following official statement was issued today by H. C. Hutchison, chairman of the federated shop crafts: Howard Thomas, formerly local boy, and son of W. B. Thomas of the Carmen's Union made an address to the theater meeting of rail strikers this morning, which was described by many as the most interesting one yet heard on the strike situation." Mr.
Thomas is visiting his parents here and is from Marshall, Texas, where he is a member of the Order of Railway Conductors, and a member of that organization's State Legislative committee. Mr. Thomas stated that the governor of Texas had refused President Harding's proffer of federal soldiers; and in this connection he recited the bloody times in Texas when last Federal troops entered that state.

"We have been running freight trains without air break connections but we have to go very slow" was one of the many statements of the speaker on rail conditions. He stated that little or no effort was being made to employ strike breakers in Texas. The main body of Mr. Thomas' speech was a statement of detail information as to ways and means being employed in Texas regarding the strike situation.
Another interesting speech was made by John Carter of the Boyles shops near Birmingham, who declared that an adamant stand was being taken by labor throughout the Birmingham district for the complete success of the present strike. Carter was formerly a resident of the Twin Cities and used to work at the shops here.

The meeting was called to order at the usual hour and the usual crowd was present. Cline, Hunter and the McCullough brothers sang the opening song followed by prayer. Reports of committee men came, and then impromptu speeches were made by a large number.

A number of the speakers referred to the Tabernacle meeting tonight, saying plans had been made for it, that would insure an interesting meeting. S. E. Roper, W. H. Wilson, local residents, and General Chairman of the Unions were in attendance and made addresses. It was announced that both these men would attend the Tabernacle meeting tonight.

At the rise of the meeting, the invitation of Manager Cagle asking the men to come to the Princess and see his new picture "Love, Honor and Behave" was greeted with applause.

RESOLUTIONS ARE MADE PUBLIC BY COMMITTEE OF 5

The following resolutions, drafted by a committee of five, appointed at a meeting in the Albany chamber of commerce Monday afternoon, were made public today as follows:

WHEREAS, the President of the Albany Chamber of Commerce was requested by officials of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad company to call a meeting of the business interests of Albany, in order that they might hear an address on the strike situation.

AND WHEREAS, the President of the Albany Chamber of Commerce called a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce's home at four p. m., Monday the 17th, of July.

AND WHEREAS, there being present a very large number of the representative business and professional men of this city.

AND WHEREAS, Mr. Evans, the assistant superintendent of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, in his address stated to the meeting fully the position of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad company towards its employees and towards the business interests of Albany, and stated that the Louisville and Nashville Railroad felt that it was not receiving, from the city of Albany, the consideration it thought its position in the community justified. Under the way of neutrality on the part of the citizens, or in the way of cooperation of the authorities in the operation of the railroad, he stated that the attitude of the community was hostile and antagonistic.

AND WHEREAS, he bitterly explained the lack of law enforcement by the county authorities.

AND WHEREAS, after lengthy discussions by many of those present indicating that the citizens did desire that the authorities give the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company their co-operation, in so far that their legal rights were concerned.

AND WHEREAS, the expressed opinion of all those heard from was to the effect that the community appreciated the presence of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad and its operations in their midst, and were concerned in taking such action as would satisfy the just requests of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad company.

AND WHEREAS, this committee, the undersigned, were appointed, after a motion to that effect was unanimously carried, to draft a resolution pledging the loyalty of the business interests of the community to all persons concerned in the present disagreement between the employees of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad company and the company itself, without discrimination.

NOW THEREFORE, be it resolved that bearing in mind our Country's time honored principle of "Equal rights to all and special favors to none" we sympathize with the working men, now in disagreement with their employers, and pledge to them a "square deal," and in so far as we are able full protection by law of their rights.

And further be it resolved bearing in mind the above quoted unquestioned and fundamental principle of our government, and in addition realizing the full importance of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad as an upbuilder of this and other cities in our state, stressing the fact of their vital importance to this city we pledge to them our loyalty, and in so far as we

BELIEF PREVALENT THAT HARDING WILL ACT IN A FEW DAYS BY CALLING PARLEY OF UNION LEADERS AND RAILWAY HEADS

Admission of Labor Board of Its Inability To Bring Peace May Result In Executive Action

(By Associated Press.)

KNOXVILLE, July 20.—Frank Fair, chairman of the shop crafts at the Coster shops of the Southern railway, announced the shop crafts chairman has been authorized by B. M. Jewell, strike leader, to enter into negotiations with executives of the road, looking toward a separate settlement of the strike on the Southern system.

(By International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, July 20.—President Harding today was considering the matter of taking the railway strike entirely out of the hands of the railway labor board and attempting, by direct White House pressure, to get the striking shop craftsmen and executives together. To do this would necessitate the calling of the union leaders and executives to Washington, possibly also the board itself and, in a three-cornered conference, seek the peace the board has been unable to establish.

Court action also is being considered—particularly from the viewpoint of establishing collusion between the striking railway men and miners.

Government officials generally, however, were frank to admit that even should conspiracy be established between the two groups of labor and the leaders, it would accomplish neither mining coal nor repair of cars—both of which are essential if industry is to be kept going and the country to be saved from the most acute coal famine in years.

The thin thread of contact that has been maintained between the operators who had favored acceptance of President Harding's arbitration offer and the miners, was definitely broken off today and it was announced at the National Coal Association that "all negotiations have ended."

Some slight hope has been felt that peace might be accomplished through these "conciliatory operators" and the miners, but the dispelling of this hope today only served to increase the general gravity of the situation as viewed by government officials.

The one final and extreme course of action that appeared open to the government today is the seizure of both mines and railroads and the operation of them as government utilities until peace can be established between the private agencies that run these two essentials.

This step, however, will not be taken except as a last resort and after every means that arbitration can devise to bring peace has failed utterly.

(By International News Service.)

CHICAGO, July 20.—The belief that President Harding will call a conference in Washington of railway executives and labor leaders within the next few days, in an effort to bring about settlement of the rail strike, was prevalent in rail circles here today.

Admission by the United States railway labor board that it has been unable to bring about an adjustment and that all peace negotiations have been abandoned will, it is believed, result in direct intervention by President Harding.

Unless a settlement can be brought about through the efforts of the President it is declared a finish fight between the railroads and the unions portends.

Conferences that have been going on here for more than a week have reached a decided impasse and Ben W. Hooper, chairman of the labor board, has announced that the board has no peace program pending nor any negotiations underway.

Railway executives similarly announced they had no conference looking toward settlement pending.

The stumbling block to peace has been the question of seniority rights.
The roads declared they will not require the men who have been loyal to forfeit their seniority rights to returning strikers.

Reports reaching here from all sections of the country indicated that the strike rapidly was taking on a more serious aspect. Curtailment of service on scores of roads in all parts of the country has been announced. It was estimated today that more than 300 trains have been cancelled. The southwestern region, according to all reports, has been hardest hit.

Leaders of the strikers point out that it usually takes about 60 days for a strike on the railroads to be generally felt. They contend that the present strike is beginning to have a serious effect on traffic conditions while it still is less than a month old.

SETTLE DOWN

CHICAGO, July 20.—With immediate prospects for peace in the railway strike zone, strikers and the railroads today settled down to a test of strength. Reports today indicated the gradual extension of curtailment of transportation, some of which, however, was due to the coal strike.

FIVE HURT

(By Associated Press.)

ALBANY, Ga., July 20.—Five passengers were injured, one seriously, when five coaches of the Southland limited, a Florida tourist train from Chicago, turned over at Adams Station, near Smithville, this morning.
A broken rail was said to have been the cause of the accident.

TROOPS OUT.

(By Associated Press.)

RALEIGH, N. C., July 20.—Acting on the governor's instructions, the adjutant general today ordered state troops from Wilson and Goldsboro to proceed to Rocky Mount at once and a squad of men now at Rockingham to proceed to Aberdeen.

JEWELL CONFIDENT.

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, July 20.—B. M. Jewell, leader of the shopmen's strike, predicted today that the strike is becoming more effective daily. He said "and the roads will yield as soon as we bring them to their knees." The railroad's executives' statement of the seniority question was characterized by Jewell as camouflage, designed to conceal the real issue of the national adjustment board. The executive board of the striking unions will meet this afternoon to consider a reply to the statement of rail executives last night.

6,000 Eggs From One Poultry Farm

On his small poultry farm near Fennell's Cove, just south of Albany, W. H. Wilson has near fifty White Leghorn hens. Since October these hens have laid 6,000 eggs, up to June, according to Mr. Wilson. He says he uses German Essex as his winter-green food for his hens. Asked if rye was not mighty good for the same purpose, Wilson replied: "Yes, rye is mighty good, but Essex is better. It is much like the kale our grandmothers used. There is the curly Essex and the smooth. I like the smooth the best."

PICNIC LUNCH.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold the regular monthly meeting at 4 o'clock on Friday af-lunch will be spread and the husbands invited. This has become an annual custom with the union and the members look forward to it with pleasure.

WE FAVOR ACCEPTANCE OF HENRY FORD'S BID FOR MUSCLE SHOALS.

WORK AT WILSON DAM MEANS A GREAT VICTORY.

The decision to begin work at once on the Muscle Shoals project, although in a very small way as yet, is an important one. It marks another milestone of real progress. The amount of money to be spent now is small indeed by comparison to the total sum that must be spent when the whole property is finally developed.

The important thing about the return of the government to the task at the Shoals, is that the people have gained a decision—a moral victory over Representatives on both Houses of Congress. They have been able to cause the Congress to reverse itself as regards Muscle Shoals. Despite only a few score men will be set to work at this time, it is a long, long call from the dismal prospect for the Shoals, when many months ago, the Republican majority refused to do any thing constructive, but did decide to scrap the greatest single asset in the way of water power on the North American continent, with possibly one or two exceptions.

The persistence with which the leaders for the movement to develop the shoals fought off all opposition was equalled only by similar persistence on the part of the people generally throughout the nation, but especially in the west and in the south. Southern men naturally led the movement for proper recognition of the claims of the Shoals. It was a Southern man—J. W. Worthington who is credited with originating the idea of approaching the peerless Henry Ford, as the most available man to lease the great properties. The opposition that arose to Mr. Ford, the moment his name was mentioned for the job was the greatest ever aroused against any man in this country for any service. The fact Mr. Ford wished to do his countrymen an unselfish good turn, was ignored and is still ignored. It remains one of the wonders of the modern world, that the Ford offer has not yet been agreed to, especially in view of the fact that the two most powerful groups of America—the farmers and laborers have endorsed the Ford bid without reservations. But who knows but that the action of the government in returning to work on the Wilson Dam, means that eventually—when it appears as is sure to be the case—that the job is too big for any body but Henry Ford he will get permission to render the service all but a very few desire him to perform?

TIME TO WAKE UP.

If ever there was a time, and if ever there was a good time to make a special effort to engage in the very necessary industry of raising in every community those things which that community needs for its sustenance, it would seem that that time is now. We are so obsessed with other things which detract from this one great purpose, that we are failing utterly to take advantage of the thing which would mean our absolute independence, insofar as means of sustenance are concerned. We are still importing from other states millions of dollars worth annually of pork and pork products, when it is a well known fact that hogs can be grown, and grown as successfully right here in Morgan county as any where else on earth. The shelves of the merchants of Morgan county are lined with canned goods, of varieties of which two crops can be grown and harvested successfully right in Morgan county, and these bear labels from distant states, and on these we pay the premium of their labor, plus the freight. What applies to Morgan county in this respect, applies to many other counties of this state, which can do the very thing Morgan county could, if but the effort was properly put forward. Just how long we are to pay tribute to other states and communities, who are not blessed with any better natural advantages, and in many instances not so good, is one of the problems of the age. Safe it is to say, that just so long as the citizenship fails to conserve and practice conservation of its natural resources, depending on more alert communities to furnish us the very things which we should furnish ourselves, just so long will we be taking from ourselves that which rightfully belongs to us, and is wholly within our power to have. It is time to wake up, and not only wake up, but get thoroughly awake.

TOO MUCH POLITICS.

If politics is at the bottom of the apathy which exists in the national halls of our law making bodies, it is very plainly evident that we have entirely too much politics. One thing stands out very pre-eminent in the activities of the day, the ability to spend the money of the nation, coupled with the effort to increase the burdens of taxation. Absolute necessities in some instances are being sought with a tax unheard of before. Wool, of which it is estimated that only 1 percent raise it on a commercial basis is scheduled to receive a protective tariff way out of proportion to mere protection; and is designed to be of benefit to just a favored few of the large sheep ranch owners. A word to ye party of special privileges. Your days as an administrative party are numbered. When one prominent republican says the present tariff is "unthinkable," this in itself should be enough for the millions of the common herd, who must buy these necessary articles upon which this favored tax is allowed a few special interests.

A NEIGHBORHOOD SPIRIT OF HELPFULNESS WORTH WHILE.

In the Plumb Springs News letter published in yesterday's Star was an item stating that a number of neighbors of a resident of that community had gone to his home and put in a day working in his fields to help him out. The man who was thus assisted had been a victim of unfortunate circumstances. Sickness and death in his family had prevented him from doing work on his crop that was needed, so his neighbors, out of the kindness of their hearts, went in a body and did the work for him.

This is not an unusual thing for people of a rural community in the south to do. It often is done when some worthy family is in distress, and it shows that the milk of human kindness is not wholly missing. It is a kind of helpfulness that really helps. It is not charity, but merely friendly aid given to one who temporarily is unable to help himself. Next year, perhaps, the man who has been thus assisted will go with other neighbors to help some other in distress. Certainly he will do so if a case of distress arises.

It is not often in a small community that the people need help. When such an occasion comes, it always is because there has been some unusual circumstances to make it. Poverty such as is known in the towns and cities does not exist in the country except in rare instances. Where no one is rich, where all work hard and live frugally and where no one wishes to appear better off than his neighbor, there is less sham, less pretense, and less want than in the artificial life of a city or town. And it is in the small community that one will find the truest and best examples of friendly aid to those around them. Rural residents would not accept charity, unless their plight was very great, but when death and sickness has come into a family and has prevented the man of that family from doing his usual work, neighbors are eager to help him and he is grateful for such help. It merely is a friendly lift, which will enable the one receiving it to get along until he can do for himself the work his neighbors have done for him.

The item in the Plumb Spring letter is a reminder that human nature has not changed; that people are as kind-hearted and as generous today as they ever were and that away from the noise and the shams of the town we may find men and women who do not hesitate to lend a helping hand in a practical way to a neighbor, thus doing an act of kindness in a way that one never would find it done in a city. How many business men in town, for instance, would leave their own places of business and go to help a competitor in business who is in distress? How many manufacturers would send their own workers to do the work in the plant of another who had met with trouble and misfortune?

Such things are not done in the cities. Yet out in a rural community where most of the people are forced to work hard and constantly to make a living we find a whole neighborhood leaving fields that need work to go into the field of an unfortunate neighbor to work for him, that his crops may not be failures.

The Plumb Spring incident, not unusual by any means in rural districts, is yet such a fine exhibition of Christian helpfulness, or real friendly aid given when most needed that it deserves special mention and special commendation. It is an example that well might be followed in the towns.—Anniston Star.

WE WILL NOT PAY THE PRICE FOR THINGS WE REALLY WANT

Chang Shu Yik, Chinese neurologist, writes: "Americans seem obsessed with a desire to live longer than nature wants them to; Whenever a medical specialist advance a theory about how to ward off old age, he instantly sweeps the popular imagination. Just now it is monkey glands. "But mark this: Even if the white doctors found a formula for eternal youth, no one would observe the rules. They would not pay the price, for the American lives in the now, and give little thought to the future."

Dr. Royal S. Copeland, New York City's health commissioner says he knows how to live 100 years, but is not living up to the rules.

The man with a weak and treacherous stomach knows what foods he should avoid, and he avoids them until he really wants them.

All of us know that over-eating makes us wretched in hot weather. But we go ahead and over-eat.

All of us know that moderate success requires only the simplest rules of old fashioned thrift and general personal restraint. Yet most of us ignore the rules.

Nearly all our troubles and distresses, result from doing what we know we should avoid. In principle, we are like the man who, afraid of wood alcohol, nevertheless takes a chance with the bootlegger.

We usually are unwilling to pay the price for what we want most.—Anniston Star.

Facts are facts; in some instances they are hard and pitiless, but they are nevertheless facts. To take a fact as it really is, and work from that standpoint, is the only way to handle it. Facts cannot be gone around. There is no way around them; they must be faced.

PAINS ACROSS SMALL OF BACK

Husband Helped in Housework.—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Strong

Poster, Oregon.—"I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for pains across the small of my back. They bothered me so badly that I could do my work only with the help of my husband. One day he saw the ad. in our paper telling what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is doing for women, so I began to take it. It has helped me wonderfully. I am feeling fine, do all my housework and washing for seven in the family. I have been irregular too, and now am all right. I am telling my friends what it has done for me and am sure it will do good for others. You can use this letter as a testimonial. I will stand up for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound any time."—Mrs. WM. JUNKER, Foster, Oregon.

Doing the housework for a family of seven is some task. If you, as a housewife, are troubled with backache, irregularities, are easily tired out and irritable, or have other disagreeable ailments caused by some weakness, give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. Let it help you.

NEWS OF MOULTON AND LAWRENCE COUNTY

MOULTON, Ala., July 20.—Special. John C. Chitwood, one of the oldest citizens in and around Moulton, passed away Tuesday and is to be buried this afternoon in the Moulton cemetery east of town. He was 84 years of age on the 15th of the past April; for several years Mr. Chitwood has been very feeble but in the past few weeks had seemed to gain some strength—enough to enable him to go about on crutches. Tuesday morning he felt so well that he was eager to attend the picnic being held on the outskirts of Moulton and his wish was granted; about noon he passed away very gently while on the picnic grounds. Mr. Chitwood was born in Tennessee but came to Lawrence County in early boyhood where his life has been spent, a good part of that time on his farm about two miles south of Moulton. For the past several months he has made his home with his daughters, Mrs. Emmett Simpson and Mrs. A. S. Byars and was living with the latter at the time of his death. His five children are living, Homes Chitwood in Texas, Mrs. Clyde Sewell in Louisiana, Mrs. Emmett Simpson and Mrs. A. S. Byars in Moulton, and Mac Chitwood in Hartselle; his only sister, living, Miss Camilla Chitwood makes her home with Mrs. A. S. Byars; his brother, Judge Chitwood died about a year ago.

One of largest gatherings seen in Moulton for some time was the gathering of people from all parts of the county to attend the picnic given by the Moulton Public School Association Tuesday in the Crosswaite pasture southwest of town; the place is an ideal one for such a gathering. Unfortunately about noon a heavy rain seemed to be approaching which dispersed many of those on the grounds but after the clouds passed around hundreds returned. Before noon Hon. Ed B. Almon, Congressman from the eighth district made an address that was listened to with interest by the large assemblage. After noon Mrs. W. B. Edmundson, candidate against Mr. Almon received close attention in her presentation of policies she advocates. Practically all the county candidates were in attendance and that in itself guaranteed a crowd.

In spite of the threatening weather the sales of Brunswick stew and barbecued meats, ice cream and soft drinks netted the association a good sum to apply to the much needed school building; hopes are now being freely expressed for a new building for the coming school session.

Many citizens of Moulton attended the picnic at Town Creek; the series of picnics being given over the county in the cause of schools is meeting with pretty general success.

Many citizens from Courtland, Hatton and Mount Hope were present at the Moulton Picnic Tuesday.

Twenty-four applicants for teacher's license took the state examination in Moulton Monday and Tuesday.

Judge Charles Almon of Florence and George Almon of Denver, Colorado, are guests of T. F. Almon and family.

Ed Hogan, cashier of the Tennessee Valley Bank at Belle Mina was at the Moulton picnic Tuesday.

The new Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord

A Popular-Priced Cord Tire Without a Rival

The new Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord Tire is built with genuine high-grade long-staple cotton as a foundation.

It is liberally oversize—the 4½-inch tire, for example, measuring nearly 5 inches.

The deep, clean-cut, cog-like pattern of its tread affords excellent traction even in snow and mud, engaging the road like a cogwheel.

The scientific distribution of rubber in this tread—the wide center rib and the semi-flat contour—gives a thick, broad surface that is exceedingly slow to wear.

This new tire is a genuine Goodyear through and through—in design, in material, in construction.

It costs less to buy than the net price you are asked to pay for many "long discount" tires of unknown reputation and value.

Why be satisfied with less than this efficient tire can give—why take a chance on an unknown make?

You can get this new Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord now, as well as the famous All-Weather Tread Cord, from any of the Goodyear Service Station Dealers listed here.

Compare these prices with NET prices you are asked to pay for "long discount" tires

SKIRTS LONGER IN FASHION CENTER

LONDON, July 20.—Observing the fashion world go by from a bench on London's "Rotten Row," one sees that the season's modes tend to more conservative skirts, higher waist lines, picture hats a yard wide and pointed American shoes. The dressmaker's intent seems to be to cover what was once uncovered. Ankle-length skirts, voluminous sleeves, high neck-lines and loose-fitting gowns that subordinate the contour of the body, seem destined to restore woman's lost charm of mystery.

Most frocks are of the fluttering, flowing order which, caught by the breeze, look very graceful. Foulards are taking the place of Georgette and crepes of laces. Hats are circled with posies instead of being covered with plumes. Parasols are of foulard with wallpaper designs, or figures of green parrots or love-birds. Long, narrow feet are the craze of the moment, and slender, high-heeled shoes of snakeskin are coming into vogue.

For evening attire backless frocks with diamond or pearl supports are popular with some women of fashion. Many evening gowns are of a new cloth of silver or gold that resembles molten metal and that shimmers and glistens brilliantly under the electric light. Trains are inclined to be shorter, and are usually of gold or silver net. The new transparent cloaks which are being worn are trimmed with white, gray and black shaggy fur.

Very little jewelry is worn; only a simple chain of jade or amber, or a Chinese mandarin's collar of teak-wood beads.

Woman Injured As Horse Runs Away

Considerable excitement was caused near noon today, when the horse of Mrs. B. L. Wilson and her son, F. H. Gilliam, ran away, throwing Mrs. Wilson from the buggy and painfully bruising her face and arms. She was given medical attention immediately after the accident by Dr. F. L. Chevalier and is now none the worse for her dangerous experience, except for the pain of the bruises. She expressed herself as thankful no greater harm was done.

Mrs. Wilson lives on ten miles west on the Jerry Royer farm, and her son lives near her on the Taylor Royer place. Mother and son had driven in with a buggy load of farm produce. When they reached West Moulton Street near Second Avenue, Mr. Gilliam got out to solicit sales for the produce and left Mrs. Wilson to hold the horse. As the sun was hot, Mrs. Wilson sought to raise her umbrella. This frightened the horse and he bolted across Second Avenue, the buggy giving away near the Albany Drug Company on East Moulton Street. The buggy was almost a total wreck and the potatoes, eggs and garden greens it had contained were scattered all over the street. Some of the chickens brought in got away and ran hither and thither.

Lightest Vote In Recent Years Cast

The election held in Albany Wednesday, July 19, for a ratification or rejection of the 60,000 funding bonds, was the lightest vote ever cast in the city during recent years. Owing to other matters engrossing the attention of the citizens of this municipality, not much attention was paid to the election. The result was 189 for, 30 against.
